

Eisenhower Library, White House, OFFICE OF STAFF SECRETARIES
STAFF Series; State Dept. Subseries,
Box 15

The following proposals on future use of the U-2 capability are informal, preliminary, and do not have the approval of the Director of Central Intelligence:

A. The CIA will maintain a greatly reduced and redeployed U-2 capability.

B.

C. The U-2s

D.

DECLASSIFIED

Authority MR 78-41 # 15

bc DATE 7/18/80

PORTIONS EXEMPTED

E.O. 12055, Sec. 1-3(b)(c)

CIA 1/28/80 - 000 6/18/80

DATE 7/18/80

E. Up to [REDACTED]

F. As soon as [REDACTED]

As rapidly

as possible these and associated equipments will be turned over to the Air Force for use by SAC and ARDC.

* Certain modifications to reduce vulnerability could be made in the U-2 with some sacrifice in performance. These include the following:

A. [REDACTED]

B. [REDACTED]

C. [REDACTED]

CIA stresses that this paper has no status whatsoever, and requests it be destroyed when its usefulness is done.

JSDE